AVEA Eco Luxury Squalane Face Oil : Conti

Directly extracted cold-pressed, unrefined oil with no added chemicals, fragrances, or synthetic ingredients. It has excellent absorption and absorbs quickly to soothe and deeply moisturize the skin. The Oil is suitable for all skin types including sensitive skin, and it is possible to create a shiny skin and it is greasy free!

- Squalane is naturally occurring in our skin's sebum, so using squalane oil as a moisturizer will actually balance out your oil production. Derived from olives, this squalane oil is quick-drying but very hydrating. Just a few drops (a little goes a long way!) will give you a healthy glow.
- Rose Hip Seed Oil : This seed oil can be used for nearly any skin concern. This non-comedogenic oil is great for skin problems, but it's also a great moisturizer for dry and aging skin. Plus, it's super absorbent and light enough to wear under makeup.
- Sea-Buckthorn Berry (fruit) oil is produced from the fruit of the Hippophae rhamnoides shrub. This ancient fruit contains 190 active nutrients including Vitamins A, B1, B2, C, D, E, K, carotenoids, flavonoids, amino acids, phenols, folic acid, and 20 different minerals and is considered to be one of the top nutritious fruits on earth. Nowadays it is well-known for its healing and rejuvenating effects on the skin. It can also help heal burns, cuts, wounds, sunburn, rashes, and other types of skin damage.
- Korean Tongyoung Fermented Camellia Seeds oil is highly moisturizing, rich in antioxidants and essential fatty acids, and is used in the treatment of many skin irritations. Moisturize - it penetrates quickly and deeply, giving your skin optimum hydration without a greasy feel. Your skin will feel remarkably, refreshed, smooth and firm. Thanks to its intensely hydrating properties, Camellia Oil is great to use if you have dry or dehydrated skin. This Korean Fermented Camellia Seeds oil offer beyond your imagination. 86% "Oleic acid triglyceride" like human skin! It's anti-allergenic properties also make it great to use on sensitized and delicate skin types.
